3KO BROADWAY THEATRE COMPANY KICKS OFF ITS 7TH SEASON WITH THE WORLD PREMIERE OF “CIVILIZATION”

The 3KO Broadway Theatre Co. will open its 7th season, in a new permanent space, by presenting you with an original piece, “Civilization”, written by David Fonvielle.

Description: What if Adam had a choice of Eve’s? Who would he pick?

That is the case for Steve, who finds himself the last man of Earth. The end of civilization has occurred except for five lucky people. Steve finds himself shipwrecked on an island and stumbles upon a small contingent of women who have banded together on a deserted island with the intention of creating a man-free future for the world. The women had created the utopia with the intention of re-populating the world on their own, but learn early on, that they can’t do it alone and need Steve’s help. And, Steve is now faced with the decision of choosing which woman he will mate with to save the future of mankind; Cindy (the hottie), Mary (the tramp turned born again), and Sheila (the militant bitch). Sadly for Steve, the one woman he has a connection with, Lady, has to take herself out of the running because she is infertile. Rounding out the characters is Sarah, an older woman, who imparts wisdom and creates a little havoc for everyone to learn the lesson of what is really important in society.

David Fonvielle is the playwright. He is a graduate of Duke University with a B.A. in B.S. In addition to “Civilization”, he also wrote the play “Hollywood Complex”, which was nominated for several awards by the L.A. Weekly. He is currently writing a novel.

The cast of “Civilization” includes (in alphabetical order): Shelley Boyle, Barbara Keegan, Jason Ryan Lovett, Jessica McCabe, Bree Pavey and Heather Smith.
